

A Second Touch

Support Coordination Agency

Let A Second Touch guide you to the right resources and restore what matters most.

Restoring and Redeeming What Was Missed

At A Second Touch, we believe the second touch is not about making things right, but about redeeming and restoring what wasn't received with the first touch.

Who We Are

A Second Touch helps individuals and families navigate community resources. We create person-centered plans to meet individual needs while also supporting caregivers.

Our mission is to ensure that everyone receives the care and support they deserve.
